

Helen's Angels is named for Helen Henderson, mother of founder Missy Quinn. To honor her courageous battle with breast cancer, the annual Pink Ball Tournament is held the Monday following Mother's Day and Tinas for Tatas in late October during Breast Cancer Awareness Month. These signature events have raised over $2,000,000 to support women, men, and families who are struggling financially, emotionally and physically from their breast cancer diagnosis.

Thank you for your support of this event!
